Double Takes: The Dalí Look-Alike Contest

The Dalí Museum's Second Annual Dalí Look-ALike Contest

2009 ENTRY FORM

Double Takes is a contest encouraging people to create a vision of who they think Salvador Dalí is – we want them to think, create, behave and/or look like Dalí.

The Look-Alike Contest is not celebrity impersonation: our contestants, both male and female, are encouraged to express and define how they or their work embodies the spirit of Dalí.

Contestants may enter by submitting one-minute videos within that theme, or by appearing in person to model their interpretive Dalí costume.

Our two-day event opens with an art party and screening of video entries in Ybor City on May 8, and concludes with an awards ceremony and celebration honoring Dalí's birthday at the museum on May 9

Contest Guidelines:

Double Takes: The Second Annual Dalí Look-Alike Contest is open to anyone. However, participants age 18 or younger must have written parental consent to participate and/or submit a video.

Method of Entry:

VIDEO SUBMISSION:

- Contestants can send their video to the museum address above. Please limit running time to one minute. Please submit as DVD or CD with your video in Quick Time (mov), Windows Media Video (wmv) or MPEG (.mpg or .mpeg) format.
- All projects must be original, and may not include images of Dalí or his artwork other than those created by the contestant. Submitted materials will not be returned.
- Videos with a running time of more than one minute will be eliminated or edited.
- All entries must include the printed or online entry form clearly filled out, and the video clearly labeled with the name of the entrant. Please tell us what is striking or special about your Dalí video, and what connection you feel with the artist.
- All Video submissions must be received by April 24, 2009.
- Video Contestants are invited to attend the May 9 party, but it is not required to enter the contest. After May 9 judging, a selection of the top ten entries, including the winning video, will be available for viewing at www.thedali.org/doubletakes.

LIVE COSTUMED APPEARANCE:

- Entrants in this category must appear in person as their Dalí Look-Alike for the Party and Awards Ceremony on Saturday, May 9.
- Contestants will have a chance to parade for the judge and crowds before the winner is chosen and announced.
